IN OHIO AND INDIANA

The Democrats Hold Two Spirited Expeditionary Conventions.

Ohio Instructs for Tilden and Indiana for McDonald.

Ohio Nominates General Ward, Ex-Senator Thurman, John R. McLean and Jacob Mueller, of Cleveland, Delegates at Large to Chicago.—James W. Newman for Secretary of State—Ex-Governor Isaac P. Gray Nominated for Governor by the Indiana Democracy, and General Manson for Lieutenant Governor—Rest of the Indiana State Ticket—Altogether it was a Big Day for the Democrats.

COLUMBUS, June 26.—Effort after effort to come to an understanding with Lieutenant Governor Warwick, without avail, has determined the combination to take the bit in their teeth. Late yesterday afternoon a close canvass was made of the personal strength of each candidate for delegate at large, with the view of making a final slate. It resulted in a play on Converse, who had his speech all ready to deliver when elected Chairman. Adjutant General Finley, who was chosen, was thus removed from the field as delegate at large, much to his disgust, but Hoadly's friends had done it, and he swallowed gracefully. Converse cursed, as he couldn't at that late hour re-enter the field for large delegate. The canvass of personal strength resulted in the Big Four slate for delegates, which has not a grain of compromise in it. John R. McLean, General Morgan, Colonel Ed. Powell, and Colonel Thompson, of Cleveland, Secretary of the Standard Oil Company. The fight is now on, sure, but the seas will all be healed by selecting some of the candidates as alternates. The free traders are wild over the deposition of L. A. Russell, of Cleveland, from the Committee on Resolutions, and the substitution of Mayor Farley. Farley is a free trader in theory, but believes in protection in practice. The free traders will carry the war into the Convention and swear by Tarquin and all the Gods no gag rule will be tolerated. There is a decided feeling, growing stronger every hour, that it will be suicidal for Hoadly to push his claims at Chicago.

Farley, LeFevre, Converse, Paige and others say if Ohio is made the battle ground by the nomination of an Ohioan for either place on the national ticket the Democrats are whipped here in October, and through that defeat in the Union in November. Hence, while Hoadly will go to Chicago with practically a solid delegation, its members will not be enthusiastically for him, but will seek the first opportunity after Cleveland's nomination for first place to vote for McDonald, of Indiana, for second.

First District delegates last night chose for delegates to Chicago Dan J. Dalton and Lewis G. Bernard; for alternates, Fred Herman and James Poland; for Presidential elector, Mike Ryan; for State Central Committeeman, Jerry Mulroy. The delegates were instructed to vote as a unit for John R. McLean as delegate at large to the Chicago Convention.

Second District delegates selected for delegates to Chicago John J. Brady and John C. Riley; for alternates, Sol P. Kinson and Peter H. Clark, colored; for Presidential Elector, Mayor Stephens; for State Central Committeeman, Thos. Cogan. John R. McLean was unanimously endorsed for delegate at large to the Chicago Convention.

COLUMBUS, June 26.—10:45 A. M.—This is a shirt-sleeve Convention. The great Democratic party is being stewed with the thermometer at 95 degrees in the hall. A thousand fans are irritating the air, and as many petty differences are irritating alleged cerebellums.

Peter King, Patrick Kelly, alias Tulley, Peter Kane and Schaffer, delegates and contestants from Ward 8, Cincinnati, got into a fistfight argument in front of the Neil House, and all were arrested. Subsequently they were released, and now adorn seats in the Convention.

Allen O. Myers has just shown up on the stage with a fine swollen jaw, the effects of the thump that saloon keeper Charley McMillen gave him in the Thirtieth District meeting.

Again the slate has been revamped. Jacob Mueller, of Cleveland, has telegraphed that he would not accept the nomination of elector at large, and Cuyahoga has dropped Colonel Thompson and selected Mueller as delegate at large.

CONVENTION CALLED TO ORDER.
Paige, in calling the Convention to order, said it was too hot to make a speech. Speaker Marsh was invited to make the Committee on Credentials' report. There were two reports, and the Committee on Permanent Organization reported as agreed upon.

Allen O. Myers, as chairman of the Committee on Permanent Organization, reported that for delegates at large and alternates each delegate of this Convention should vote for four nominees on each ballot. This is to rush the Big Four slate through on one ballot. There were several noes to this but it prevailed.

Paige said in his speech: "Have your quarrels here in this Convention, and with your differences settled here go forth to the greatest campaign for the past twenty-five years."

Chairman Finley's speech stated that the Republicans stated the presidential election hinged on Ohio's voice in October, and if that was true the Republican party would go to the wall, for Ohio would go Democratic in October. He compared the party to-day, which had 25 Democratic Governors and one House of Congress against the party in 1876, when it elected Tilden President, having then only five Democratic Governors out of 37, and neither House of Congress. He denounced the great Tilden-Hayes fraud, the sage of Gramercy's name eliciting tremendous applause. Hoadly's name also secured applause, but it was faint. Finley rejoiced at the death of most of the Louisiana conspirators and the retirement into obscurity of the remainder. Democratic economy in Congress was commended.

Finley gave figures to show a reduction of State taxation, notwithstanding the extra expenses of the floor, and praised that legislation which gave better jury laws, abolished the contract labor system, and generously sustained the citizen soldiers. He denounced the Republican tariff as covered all over with monopoly, favoritism and corruption. Finley closed with a peroration to turn the rascals out.

Chairman Marsh, on Credentials, reported contests from Green and Fayette Counties, in the Eighth District, seating Kerr's delegates from Green County, and the County Central Committee appointment from Fayette County. The report elicited cheers and hisses. The minority report recommended the opposite, and the previous question was moved, but not seconded on the minority report, amid cries of "Gag law." The contest hinges between the Martin and anti-Martin factions as a candidate for Supreme Judge, the majority report favoring the anti-Martins.

Convention in Detail.

COLUMBUS, O., June 26.—The Convention was called to order at 10:31 a. m. by Chairman David R. Paige, who introduced the Permanent Chairman, E. B. Finley, who was greeted with applause. He charged the Republican party as one of corruption, who had conducted a long series of robberies and maintained itself in power by corrupt use of patronage. He predicted the success of the Democratic party in the State in October and the country in November. He dwelt long on the fraud of 1877, and at the mention of the name of Samuel J. Tilden the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. After a long eulogy of the virtues and claims of the Democratic party for the suffrages of the people, he proceeded to the regular order of business. The Committee on Credentials presented both a majority and minority report on delegates from Greene County. After a vigorous fight it was referred back to the committee.

Hon. Elmer A. White, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented his report, which is substantially the same as that of the last convention.

Mr. Russell offered a substitute—his free trade resolution and the proposition to strike out sections referring to the tariff in resolutions presented by the Committee on Resolutions. He was hissed throughout the reading of his amendments and vigorously and overwhelmingly voted down.

Hon. George L. Converse offered a resolution, that it is the sense of this Convention that Samuel J. Tilden should receive the unanimous support of the Ohio State Convention at Chicago, on account of the great fraud of 1877.

Adopted with immense enthusiasm. A resolution was offered that the Ohio delegates-at-large and district delegates should be instructed to cast the vote of Ohio at Chicago as a unit.

This caused a vigorous kick from all quarters, and finally resulted in a call of the roll by counties on the motion to lay on the table, which is now being done amid great confusion.

Vote resulted—ayes, 385; nays, 255. Now calling for members of the District Committees.

A motion to adjourn till 2 o'clock was voted down.

Nominations for four delegates-at-large was called for.

Frank Doherty, of Hardin County, nominated John R. McLean, of Hamilton County. John G. Warwick, of Massillon, was nominated by Woods, of Wooster.

T. G. Powell, of Delaware, nominated by Mamont, of Delaware.

Seward, of Richland County, moved the suspension of the rules and the nomination of General Durbin Ward by acclamation.

Call by counties called for and seconded receiving vigorous protests for and against the resolution, the Chairman, pounding the table trying to call the Convention to order, finally succeeded and the call proceeded. The vote on Seward's motion resulted—ayes, 484; nays, 232½. General Ward was declared elected by acclamation.

Allen, of Licking, moved a suspension of the rules and the nomination of John R. McLean by acclamation.

General Warner moved as a substitute to Allen's motion the suspension of the rules and the nomination of Allen G. Thurman by acclamation.

Cogan, of Hamilton County, moved as a substitute to Warner's substitute that the name of John R. McLean be added to the name of that of Thurman. Roll call ordered. The vote on motion and substitutes resulted—509, ayes; 209, nays. Vote on the previous question resulted in the nomination of Allen G. Thurman and John R. McLean by acclamation.

E. C. K. Heasley, of Cleveland, nominated Jacob Mueller, of Cleveland. Moved the rules be suspended and nominated by acclamation. Carried. Jacob Mueller declared elected.

General A. V. Rice and General T. E. Powell were nominated for electors at large.

The rules were suspended and they were nominated by acclamation.

General Powell was loudly called for and appeared on the platform.

He nominates James W. Newman for Secretary of State. He predicts that Secretary Newman can carry the State by a large majority and predicts a Democratic succession to the late Democratic President, Samuel J. Tilden. [Loud applause.] He characterizes his administration as one of great economy.

The rules were suspended and he is nominated by acclamation.

Secretary Newman appeared on the platform and is now addressing the Convention.

John Benfer, of Tuscarawas, was nominated for Board of Public Works, and Charles D. Martin, of Lancaster, for Supreme Judge.

The Indiana Democrats.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 26.—11 A. M.—The State Democratic Convention has just organized at English's Opera House, with Senator Voorhees as Permanent President. Senator Voorhees was introduced by Mc-

Donald. Three cheers were heartily given him as the next Vice President of the United States. Both McDonald and Voorhees spoke briefly, prophesying a victory at the polls. A very large platform was reported by English taking ground for tariff for revenue so arranged as to draw the most public revenue from luxuries instead of necessities. It condemned the Republican demand for a State Constitutional Convention. The platform also endorsed Voorhees, recommended a delegation support to McDonald as a unit for nomination for President. McDonald's name received great applause. When the call for nominations of a Governor was progressing an effort was made to start a Voorhees boom for the good of the party, but the Senator emphatically declined to allow his name used. The candidates were Isaac P. Gray, of Randolph, David Turpie, and M. D. Manson. A choice was reached the first ballot, the vote being Gray 690, Manson 181, Turpie 223.

Half a dozen candidates were nominated for Lieutenant Governor, but the friends of General Manson took the bit in their teeth and compelled their declaration. Manson was unanimously nominated amid great enthusiasm. William K. Myers, present Secretary of State, and other State officials were unanimously renominated.

W. R. Myers, of Madison, for Secretary of State; James H. Rice, of Floyd, for Auditor, and John J. Cooper, of Marion for Treasurer, were renominated by acclamation.

For Reporter of the Supreme Court, John W. Kern, of Howard, was nominated; for Judge of the Supreme Court, Fifth District, J. A. S. Mitchell, of Elkhart; Superintendent of Public Instruction, John W. Holcomb, of Marion. The Convention adjourned at 1:30.

RINGING TESTIMONY.

Colonel Cook Stirring Up the Animals with a Long, Sharp Stick.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Colonel Cook, one of the original counsel in the Star route case, was before the Springer Committee to-day. He denounced the statement made by Bliss reflecting upon him as intentional falsehoods. As soon as Garfield died, said Cook, Bliss succeeded in getting control of the prosecution and immediately exhibited a desire to exclude from the cases those he could not control. In conclusion, the witness declared Bliss' statements to be "studied, malignant inventions and perjury."

The witness then paid his respects to Woodward. Answering a question, he said Woodward was the most inefficient and unfortunate man who could have been selected for the work upon which he was detailed. Had Garfield lived he thought there would have been different results in the cases. He believed an indictment could have been found in the Sausbury case and doubted the ability of the counsel to properly prosecute the cases. He believed there was a lack of methodical and discriminate ability to present the cases to the jury intelligibly.

Shoemakers' Strike Ended.

PHILADELPHIA, June 26.—The shoe manufacturers' terms with the striking employees yesterday. A Committee from the Executive Board of the District Assembly conferred with the Executive Committee of the Manufacturers' Association at Laird, Scholer & Mitchell's factory. The Manufacturers' Committee decided to sign the revised schedule of wages with some modifications. The Shoemakers' Committee then carried the bill to all but four manufacturers and obtained their signature. The remaining four signed this morning and the men returned to work.

Millions of Logs.

TAYLOR FALLS, Wis., June 26.—An enormous jam of logs is now in the Dell of the St. Croix at this place. There are from 40,000,000 to 50,000,000 feet of logs jammed in every conceivable shape, forming a novel sight. Thousands of logs are being added daily from above. People are flocking in from the surrounding country to see the unusual spectacle. It is thought it will take three weeks to break it up.

Cut Open with a Buzz Saw.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 26.—A twelve-year-old son of Andrew Taylor, a Beaver avenue grocer, had his side cut open to-day by a buzz saw in Miller's barrel works. He was leaning over the saw when the machinery started. He cannot recover.

Sharon's Purchase.

WASHINGTON, June 26.—Ex-Senator Sharon has made a big trade with John B. Alley by which he has become owner of the property in Washington belonging to the California syndicate. Mr. Sharon will place all this realty on the market at once.

HOOVER THE OBJECTOR

Ed Stokes' Project to Capture the National Committee Foiled.

Carl Schurz Reticent on the Political Situation—The Missouri Democracy—Woman Suffragists of Kansas.

New York, June 26.—The World's Washington special says: It is not generally understood that Ed Stokes went to Chicago for the purpose of getting the National Republican Committee to use the Hoffman House as its headquarters. Folger, who stops at this house, sent his Private Secretary, Sperry, to Chicago to help Stokes. But the Secretary of the Committee, Colonel George W. Hoover, of Vermont, was a brother-in-law of the late Jim Fiske. When he heard that Sperry had secured a promise from a majority of the Committee to go to the Hoffman House Colonel Hoover entered a protest. He said he would resign from the Committee before he would enter the Hoffman House. So the Hoffman House was temporarily dropped, the general understanding being now that the committee will remain at the Fifth Avenue, where it has been for so many years. I understand, however, that Stokes has not yet given up his point, and when the Committee meets on the 26th will try again to get them to go to the Hoffman. It is hardly probable that he can secure what he wants in face of the fact that the selection of the Hoffman would lead to Colonel Hoover's resignation. Hoover is one of the best and most active politicians on the Committee and has probably better relations with New York business men than any other man on the committee. He can probably raise more money upon his individual efforts than any member of the Committee unless Elkins be excepted.

Carl Schurz.

New York, June 26.—Mr. Carl Schurz was seen last evening at the residence of Dr. Jacoby, No. 110 West Thirty-fourth street, and when requested to give his views as to the political situation he said:

"I would rather say nothing on that subject at the present time. I shall make some speeches in the course of the campaign, and then my views will be fully expressed. My opinion in regard to the nomination of Mr. Blaine is well known, and I am one of the Committee of the Independents; the general situation I don't care to talk about."

"Who do you think is the strongest man for the Democratic candidate, Mr. Schurz?"
"Well, as to that I have no opinion to express, but I think Cleveland would carry this State."

"Will the Independents nominate a candidate of their own?"

"No, I think not; but I am sure they would support either Cleveland or Bayard, or," he added, reflectively, "any good man that the Democrats may nominate. The Democratic party has an opportunity this time that they have not had for many years. If they miss it this time, then good-by to them. But you must excuse me; I cannot talk politics at present. Come by and hear me speak, and you'll hear just what I think."

The Missouri Convention.

ST. LOUIS, June 26.—The State Democratic Convention reassembled at 9:45 a. m. Before it was called to order, the arrival of ex-Governor Phelps, who had been absent from the State all winter and spring, caused a scene. He received an ovation and responded in a short speech, declining the nomination for delegate at large. It is understood, however, Phelps is a candidate for Governor.

Woman Suffrage.

TOPEKA, Kas., June 26.—The woman suffragists met in State Convention to-day for the purpose of organizing this State in behalf of a constitutional amendment enfranchising women. This is the first convention of its kind ever held in the State.

Will Go Unpledged.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., June 26.—The Democratic State Convention convenes at noon to-day. Speculation is rife as to the nominee for Governor. The three candidates, John G. Fletcher, General Simon P. Hughes, and Jacob Fishick, have instructed delegates as follows: Fletcher 92, Hughes 69, Fishick 19. The fight to secure enough of the thirty-five unpledged votes to make the necessary 108 promises to be interesting. The indications are that the delegates to Chicago will go unpledged and that a tariff-for-revenue-only platform will be adopted.

The Naval Appropriation Bill will go over till the next session of Congress, as the Conference Committees of the two branches of Congress are unable to agree on essential points of the bill.

The foundry firm of H. L. Shepard & Co., West Front street, Cincinnati, and the partners individually, have assigned for the benefit of individual and partnership creditors. Assets $1,500.

FIFTY thousand dollars, with $8,000 accumulated interest, a legacy of the late Charles A. Reed, of Newton, Mass., to the United States toward the payment of the public debt, has just been paid into the sub-treasury.

At the State Convention of laboring men at Columbus, Ohio, M. D. Connelly, of Cincinnati, was elected Permanent President; W. H. Kelly, of Columbus, Vice President; W. F. Lewis, of Shawnee, Secretary, and W. R. Eckley, of Dayton, Assistant Secretary.

EX-GOVERNOR HENDRICKS, Senator Voorhees, State Senator Bell and Colonel Charles Dunby have been selected as delegates at large from Indiana to the Democratic Convention at Chicago, and Hon. Bayless W. Hanna and Dr. W. H. Hunter as electors at large.

EX-GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN, of South Carolina, in his oration before the Phi Beta Kappa Society of Vermont University, made a masterly reply to the oration of Charles Francis Adams, in which the latter held that the study of the dead languages was not necessary to a thorough education.
